Nobody aims ever at monopoly and domination. There is no guilty, no enemies.

It hits to all, to young people, to old people, to men, to women, to adults and to children.

There is never abhorrence or refusal. There is never exhaustion. There is never too much closeness or too much clearance.

Man wants to here woman's deep dark voice calling.

Weight of the body, strength of the sensitive hand, light touch confirms love better than words 2000 times.

When she dress up a new frock, she wants to feel mans passionate eyes and in the same time she recognize vibration in her nipples.
